

Dr. Crystal Brown's Bio

Dr. Brown is a veteran principal from Fayetteville, NC. She was a North Carolina Teaching Fellow at East Carolina University and earned a Bachelor of Music degree. Dr. Brown began her educational career in Fayetteville in 1995 as an orchestra teacher for grades 5-12. In 2002, she earned her Masters of School Administration degree from Fayetteville State University as a prestigious North Carolina Principal Fellow. That same year, she became an assistant principal in a public Montessori elementary school. In 2006, Dr. Brown was named principal of Benjamin Martin Elementary School. She later received the honor of being named the 2013 Cumberland County Schools Principal of the Year. Dr. Brown earned a doctorate in educational administration from North Carolina State University in 2013. She will serve as the principal of Benjamin Martin Elementary School through December 2016 and will then relocate to the Gainesville area. She will begin her new role as principal of Mundy Mill Academy effective January 2017.

Dr. Brown's educational experiences have afforded her the opportunity to collaborate with a diverse group of people to achieve a common goal to provide a positive learning environment in which every student develops the skills and knowledge necessary to pursue a productive life, to succeed in a diverse and evolving society, and to empower students to become lifelong learners.